M'Callum-Parker Wedding Of Surpassing Interest To Washington Society

Ceremony at St. John's Church Tuesday to Be Followed by Reception at Home of Parents on Massachusetts Avenue.

No wedding to take place in Washington in years has been of more interest to resident and official society than that of Miss Cecelia M'Callum, daughter of Mrs. Mary Sherman M'Callum, and Mr. Chauncey G. Parker, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey G. Parker of New Jersey, in St. John's Church at 4 o'clock next Tuesday afternoon. A reception at the home of Mrs. M'Callum on Massachusetts avenue will follow the ceremony.

The Rev. Dr. Robert Johnson will officiate, and there will be an imposing array of attendants, making the party one of the largest seen here in a year or two. Mrs. Francis Hunter of Trenton, N. J., will be matron of honor, and Miss Anita Henry, maid of honor. The party of eight other attendants for the bride will include Mrs. Charles Carroll Morgan, Mrs. Curtis Ripley Smith, Princess Bertha Cantacuzene, Miss Dora M. Parton, sister of the bridegroom; Mrs. John Sherman M'Callum, sister-in-law of the bride; Miss Ellen Bruce Lee, Miss Olive Graef, and Miss Elizabeth Kearney of Charlottesville, Va.

Mr. Parker, brother of the bridegroom, will be his best man, and among the eleven ushers will be Mr. Richard Davidson, Mr. Bradford Norman, Mr. Raymond of New Jersey, Mr. Robert J. H. Powell of New York, Mr. John Bysturus Heemskerck, formerly honorary attaché of the Netherlands legation in Washington. The bridegroom is a Harvard man, class '18.

There has been incessant entertainment for Miss M'Callum and her wedding party, and following the rehearsal tomorrow Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lee will entertain the entire bridal party at dinner.
